The main objective of the first Mediterranean meeting on Acoustics MCA 2010 is to provide a platform where researchers all around the Mediterranean sea and from other areas can present their latest scientific as well as technical and educational works in all fields of acoustics and vibration. Through this workshop we hope to facilitate south-south and south-north collaborations in the field of acoustics. Beyond the possibilities of cooperation in scientific and technical research and training, this meeting will also be the opportunity for the Moroccan acousticians to organize the Moroccan acoustical community and to create officially the Moroccan Society of Acoustics.
